about us

We are a fashion company at our core.

Established in 1995, Black Label Fashions started as a trims company servicing the garment industry. Today, BLFL has now grown into a vertical business with our own fabric printing units, as well as garmenting.

At Black Label Fashions, we understand that every business has unique needs and requirements when it comes to their clothing and apparel. We have a team of experienced designers who work closely with our clients to create custom products that meet their exact specifications.
